

Clément & Avocats ranked in World Tax 2017

Clément & Avocats is proud to announce that it is referred in World Tax and praised for its international tax practice. Clément & Avocats thanks its clients for their support and trust.

The firm is described as follows:

Clément & Avocats was founded in 2014 by tax partner Christophe Clément. The team now consists of two partners and three professionals. Prior to founding the firm, Clément was a tax partner at Baker & McKenzie and has worked at Clifford Chance, PwC and Andersen.

"Ultimately I am a tax partner, a tax specialist, so that's really the DNA of the firm and all the clients are dealing with international tax," said Clément.

Clément has more than 15 years' experience in advising on debt funds, private equity and real estate funds, structured finance, securitisation and debt restructuring.

He focuses on M&A, company reorganisations, IP and incentive plans.

Partner Jens Konrad joined the firm in 2015 and focuses on tax litigation. Olympe Alexandre focuses on direct and indirect tax. Theodore Fisher is an attorney advising in the areas of banking and finance and capital markets, investment funds, corporate and regulatory law.
